

Harold D.N. Voss (1928 - 2010)

Harold D. N. Voss, 81, went to be with the Lord on Wednesday, March 17, 2010. He passed away peacefully surrounded by family.

Memorial service: 10 a.m. Monday in Laurel Land Memorial Chapel of Fort Worth, with Pastor Pete Chiofalo officiating. Inurnment: Dallas-Fort Worth National Cemetery.

Memorials: National Parkinson Foundation.

Harold was born May 14, 1928, in Dawson, N.M., and was raised by Clara Voss in Grand Junction, Colo. Harold was a Vietnam veteran where he specialized in flight engineering. He enjoyed working with his hands, repairing and building things. He served his country for a total of 24 years, retiring from the military and General Dynamics on June 1, 1971. He was proud to be a master Mason for the Masonic Lodge for 35-plus years.

Harold married Sonjia Kay on Sept. 19, 1981, and they made their home in Watauga. They spent all their time enjoying life together; they were inseparable. Harold loved animals, collected bird statues and loved working in the yard. He spent a great deal of time with his grandchildren and enjoyed making people laugh. Harold was a very honest and honorable man who always had a smile on his face and joke to be told. He will be missed by many. To his wife, he was and will always be her "rock."

Harold was preceded in death by his parents, two sisters and two brothers.

Survivors: Wife, Kay Voss; children, Teressa Cedotal, Richard Combs, Tammy Combs, Tommy Smith, Beverly Humphries, Linda Reid-Voss, Mike Voss and John Voss; brother, John Voss; several grandchildren and great-grandchildren; and his beloved dog, Molly.
